ORDER OVERRULING PLAINTIFF'S OBJECTIONS TO MAGISTRATE JUDGE'S DISCOVERY ORDER

Plaintiff Stephanale Adams is an inmate in the custody of the Michigan Department of corrections who has filed a complaint pro se alleging various violations of her civil rights. The Court referred the case to Magistrate judge Laurie J. Michelson for pretrial management. On July 9, 2012, Judge Michelson entered an order on various discovery motions [dkt. # 58], to which the plaintiff objected.

The district court reviews an order by a magistrate judge on a non-dispositive matter to determine whether the decision is “clearly erroneous.” United States v. Curtis, 237 F.3d 598, 603 (6th Cir. 2001). A decision is “clearly erroneous” if “although there is evidence to support it, the reviewing court on the entire evidence is left with the definite and firm conviction that a mistake has been committed.” United States v. United States Gypsum Co., 333 U.S. 364, 395 (1948). Where there are two plausible views, a decision cannot be “clearly erroneous.” Anderson v. City of Bessemer City, North Carolina, 470 U.S. 564, 574 (1985).

The Court has reviewed the motion papers and the magistrate judge's order and finds that the decision falls within the range of principled outcomes allowed by the facts and the applicable law.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the plaintiff's objections [dkt. #59] are OVERRULED.
